Chris prides himself on his personable approach to recruitment, endeavoring for his clients and candidates alike to never experience the sometimes-transactional nature of the industry.

Chris has a passion for finding the perfect candidate for his clients' teams. This means finding not only those that can carry out the job brief, but those who will fit in well with the culture of the business and can bring something to the table that will enhance the capabilities of their new team. Chris is highly meticulous in taking on new vacancies so that he can provide this same service to all of his clients, irrespective of industry, business size or the type of role he is looking to fill.

In realizing his strong social skills could be better utilized elsewhere, Chris joined Method Recruitment as a Talent Manager and immediately hit the ground running. Only 9 months later, Chris was promoted to the position of Recruitment Consultant – and has continued to build on his patch extensively in both a candidate and client capacity.

Outside of work, Chris spends his time hanging out with his eclectic group of international friends – many of whom he grew up with around Southeast Asia.
